

Equal Opportunities Policy

SAS provide equal opportunities in employment and will not discriminate on the grounds of race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, age, sex, gender re-assignment, religious or belief, marital status, disability or sexuality.

We will only employ people legally entitled to work in the United Kingdom. We will comply with the Employment Law. We have engaged an external Agency to advise us on all Employment Issues.

We will apply employment policies that are within the UK Employment Law.

We will carry out annual assessment with all staff. All managers must promote the company's policies and if required train personnel.

All employees have the responsibility for ensuring there are equality and no discrimination in the Company's employment practices, and its activities. Any employee falling short of these policies should be aware that unlawful acts and their action is liable to disciplinary action

All employees are responsible for ensuring that the Company's policy of equal opportunity is applied to our dealings with all stakeholders.

This policy will be reviewed annually by the management.
